Bookworms Club: Bronze, Silver and Gold – Winner British Council Innovation Award 2008

ELEMENTARY TO ADVANCED A1 TO C1

Bookworms Club Editor: Mark Furr Bookworms Library Series Editor: Jennifer Bassett

The magic formula for natural, enjoyable discussions in English.

Bookworms Club offers collections of stories selected from existing titles of The Oxford Bookworms Library, with resources for use with Reading Circles.

Reading Circles are groups of students who meet in the classroom to discuss stories, having prepared their Reading Circle role. Bookworms Club provides all that is needed for running Reading Circles.

- Stories at a range of abilities drawn from the respected Bookworms series, specially chosen for use with Reading Circles.
- Story introductions, author information, and activities for each story.
- Detailed information and support in the Handbook for running Reading Circles.
- Resources include photocopiable Role Sheets, Role Sheet Examples, Reading Circles Schedule Chart, and Expansion Activities.

Note: the stories in Bookworms Club already appear in existing Bookworms Library titles; story introductions, activities, and all Reading Circles resources are new.

Discussion Leader

The Discussion Leader's job is to . . .

- read the story twice, and prepare at least five general questions about it.
- ask one or two questions to start the Reading Circle discussion.
- make sure that everyone has a chance to speak and joins in the discussion.
- call on each member to present their prepared role information.
- guide the discussion and keep it going.

Usually the best discussion questions come from your own thoughts, feelings, and questions as you read. (What surprised you, made you smile, made you feel sad?) Write down your questions as soon as you have finished reading. It is best to use your own questions, but you can also use some of the ideas at the bottom of this page.
